

Ms. Joanne Mcsheffrey The Chief Technology Officer at Silah Gulf was Highlighted as a Keynote Speaker at the Royal University for Women conference on Women and Society in Bahrain

19-Apr-2016

Royal University for Women conference on Women and Society was held on the 19th April, 2016 at the Royal University For Women in Bahrain under the patronage of her Royal Highness Princess Sabeeka Bint Ibrahim Al-Khalifa. Silah Gulf Chief Technology Officer was a keynote speaker, who spoke during the opening general session about the role of Women, Innovation and Technology, Echoing the conference's themes, Joanne had embodied both Innovation and emphasized the importance of diversity in any industry especially when it comes to technology.

The following topics were discussed:

- Innovation & Technology
- Gender Issues: Gender and Information Technology
- Information and Knowledge Systems Management
- Information Technology Management
- Mobile Innovation and Mobile Security
- Women in IT Resources Management
- Women in IT Resources, Logistics, and Supply Chain
- Attracting, Developing and Retaining Women IT Engineers and Scientists